Reigniting Passion: Infusing Meaning & Preventing Burnout in a Post-Pandemic World

October 25, 2022

12:00 – 1:00 pm via Zoom

Presented by

David Shar
President & Founder, Illuminate PMC

It has never been more challenging to engage and retain talent. In this virtual presentation we will take a deep dive into the changing employee attitudes toward work and explore actionable strategies and tactics for reigniting sustainable employee passion within your organization.

The audience will :

- Understand the real driving force behind burnout and how to create a burnout-proof culture that goes well beyond resilience training.
- Understand how to transition from a hustle culture to a flexible culture while increasing your bottom line.
- Learn how to overcome negativity bias while avoiding toxic positivity.

ABOUT OUR SPEAKER

President and founder of Illuminate PMC, David Shar is an in-demand keynote speaker, consultant, and corporate trainer, helping organizations improve their work culture, combat burnout, and design meaningful work. David, a SHRM Senior Certified Professional, is also a popular adjunct professor at the University of Maryland's rigorous Industrial/Organizational Psychology Master's Program.
